IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Charlie E. Marshal, who passed away April 15, 1953.
Charlie's life was true and fruitful,
And his heart was filled with love.
Trusting Jesus as his Savior,
Till he joined Him up above.
Some day I shall go to meet him,
Where there'll be no more goodbye,
I can think of nothing sweeter,
Than our meeting in the skies.
Sadly missed by wife,
Elsie Marshall.

Rep. Abbitt Is Declared Nominee

Rep. Watkins M. Abbitt, of Appomattox, has been declared the nominee of the Democratic Party for another two-year term as Representative of the Fourth Congressional District of Virginia. He was so declared by Sen. Garland Gray, Chairman of the Fourth District Democratic Committee. April 16 was the deadline for candidates to file for the party nomination, and as Mr. Abbitt was the only candidate to file, no primary will be held and Mr. Abbitt's name goes on the General Election ticket as party nominee.

Mr. Abbit has served the District in Congress for ten years. He has high ranking on the House Agriculture Committee, and is chairman of the Sub-committee on Tobacco.

Of Virginia's ten Congressmen, it is likely that the only contests will develop in the First, Sixth and Ten Districts.

Appomattox County came close to losing its court house by fire late Tuesday afternoon, when a bolt of lightning struck the cupola atop the edifice, and started a fire, which was partially smothered in the enclosure under the roof, until finally put out by the Appomattox Volunteer Department.

A series of mid-afternoon electrical storms loosened a downpour of rain, and several severe bursts of lightning, ending around 4:00 P. M. An hour and a half later, William C. Hubbard, passing by, noted a flame in the top of the county court house, and turned in an alarm, It is believed that the blaze had existed since the last bursts of lightning, and had been curbed due to lack of open ventilation under the roof. The firemen had some difficulty in getting access to the sources of fisure, but succeeded in snuffing out all fire, with a minimum use of water, which would have caused considerable damage in the court room and offices on the main floor.

As a precaution, two watchmen were placed on duty all Tuesday night, to keep watch that fire did not break out again.

Fire Chief W. E. Hancock stated that no accurate estimate on the damage could be made but that he believed restoration and repair work would run into several thousand dollars. County Clerk, C. W. Smith, said that the building was protected by insurance, and that an insurance company representative was expected momentarily to make an inspection. Following this, estimates on repair will be made at once. Chief danger may be in supports holding the cupola and roof. Roof on the cupola is copper, and on the building itself, tin.

This is not the organic Appomattox County court building. That was located in 1845 at Old Appomattox Court House, and was destroyed by fire in February, 1892. That fire is recalled as having started from an open hearth used for heating in that era. Following the burning, and the dismantlement of the McLean House at the Old Court House village, led to a special election, with a bond issue, which authorized building a new court house at "West Appomattox," the railroad depot village, now the Town of Appomattox.
